

Department of Sociology: Programme Outcomes

Bachelor of Arts (B.A)

- PO1. Provides Initial knowledge about Society, Social Life and Social Interactions.
- PO2. To fulfill values and ethics inculcated through the curricula in profession and personal life
- PO3. Display the ability to engage in social interactions across the board
- PO4. Develop an understanding about the need and role as citizens and taking up individual responsibilities.
- PO5. Gain knowledge and skills essential for employability.

Course –

Sociology: Introduction to Sociology (G 1 - General paper I)

- CO1: The students will be familiar with the basic concepts and subject matter of sociology and communicate them effectively.
- CO2: The students will be able to understand the emergence of sociology as a science.
- CO3: The students will be able to understand how societies have developed.
- CO4: The students will be able to explore different career opportunities available in Sociology.
- CO5: The students will be able to identify 'Social Institutions' and their newer forms
- CO6:- The students can effectively understand the nuances of the functioning of social institutions critically

Course- Population and Society (General paper II)

- CO1: Students will get the awareness of challenges and crisis of Population in India.
- CO2. Students will understand theories and perspectives and its application to study population.
- CO3. Students will learn to identify the impact of population on society as a whole and its relevance in policy making.

Course- Crime and Society (G 3 – General Paper 3)

CO1: Students can comprehend the complex relation between crime and society, changing nature of crime.

CO2. They can learn the Different approaches and Perspectives related to Crime.

CO3: Can prepare students for professional roles of correctional agents in agencies of criminal justice administration.

CO4. Student will familiarize with different social issues and problems.

PRINCIPAL
Arts & Commerce College
Warje-Malwadi, Pune-58